

Sociology Programs Goals and Learning Objectives/Outcomes for Students: Sociology Of Citizenship
SOCI 2220

Goal: Upon Completion of Sociology of Citizenship	Learning Objectives: In order to demonstrate achievement of the goal, Students will be able to...(Corresponding TBR Objective):	Learning Outcomes:	Skills being Measured:	Methods of Engagement and Assessment:
Students will have gained an understanding of : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The role of the citizen in a democratic society 2. The strengths and weaknesses of Qualitative Research 3. The process of social change and the dynamics of community life. 4. Social Capital. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Application of the sociological perspective to experiences in the field. (S-2), (S-3) • Describe how social institutions are interrelated and the role of social capital.(S-1), (S-3) • Understand the process of social change, social movements, and the role of the citizenry. (S-3) • Compare and Contrast the basic theoretical perspectives in Sociology and identify their underlying assumptions (S-1), (S-2), (S-3) • Application of qualitative research methods to the field through Participant Observation and Case Studies. (S-5) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will complete 30 hours of service to a community organization/club/Institution and keep ethnography journal. • Student will produce the findings of their fieldwork experiences in a group presentation/project synthesizing the selected readings/text to service learning experience and observations. • Students will participate in group discussion, projects, and in-class exercises concerning various sociological topics/problems. • Students will complete a series of free-writes, and/or complete all exams 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing Skills • Application of sociological concepts to real life • Analytical/Critical • Retention of sociological concepts and theories • Social Conventions of group endeavors • Working in diverse settings • Social Conventions of Classroom • Retention of sociological concepts and theories 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Free-Writes • Quizzes • In-Class Exercises • Exams/Essay Exams • Presentations: Groups/Individual • Writing Assignment • Reflective exercises • Service Learning • Discussion based Lecture